The People of God Prayer

God of surprises,
whose love is eternal yet ever new,
you call us as your people to be a channel of blessing to others:
help us to journey with you into the future you have prepared for us, surprise us with your mercy and grace waiting for us at every turn of the road, and bring us and the world you have given us
to our journey's end in you;
for you are the God who can do all things,
and WITH YOU WE CAN,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The farewell to Bishop Bill and Frances is on 6 April and they move on 7th. Please remember them in your prayers.

The Crown Nominations Commission has met and made its recommendation about who the next Bishop of Truro should be. It is not likely that a name will be known before June, but it would be good to hold our (as yet unnamed) prospective Bishop and all involved in the process in our prayers.

Please pray regularly for Bishop Roy who assumes additional responsibilities.

It would be good also to continue to hold our Archbishop, Rowan, and his family in our prayers, especially as he makes preparations for the Lambeth Conference beginning in July.

This month's prayer diary includes, for the first time, the Common Worship themes for the Easter season. These appear on 2nd, 4th, 5th, 12th & 14th, but you might like to make them part of your daily intercession.
